

One time I started making a turkey sandwich.
Then I remembered
I had a banana that needed to be used up.

So I decided to make a peanut butter and banana sandwich
instead.

The group home worker
looked at the new person
she was training and said,

“Judy must have forgotten
that she wanted a turkey sandwich.
They have short attention spans, you know.”